MERITORIOUS UNIT CITATION -- FBIS Panama Bureau has received a Meritorious Unit Citation for sustained superior performance for the period June 1987 through May 1988. The award is in recognition of the superb performance the bureau's employees have sustained while working under the often tense and stressful conditions created by the crisis situation in Panama. The citation cites the bureau's coverage of Panama, Nicaragua, and other key sources in Central and South America as having played a major role in keeping policymakers informed of vitally important and often historic events. During the same timeframe, the bureau was able to successfully automate without disruption to any of the important services provided to its consumers. (U/AIUO)

SERVICE TO VICE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE -- During this U.S. election year, the FBIS Wire Services Staff has been alert to foreign comment and reportage on the election process as well as the activities and statements by the presidential candidates. On 8 September, the White House Situation Room conveyed appreciation to the FBIS Wire for filing two Soviet press items commenting on the policies of Vice President Bush. Both items were flagged to the Office of the Vice President in the EOB. (U/AIUO)
